

IN GOOD TASTE

Danielle Deavens and Douglas Spencer, Jr. celebrated their love with incredible food and family.

ALTHOUGH DANIELLE DEAVENS and Douglas Spencer, Jr. first met as students of Elon University in North Carolina and currently live in St. Louis, Missouri, they knew they had to get married in Philadelphia, the home of the bride's parents. "We chose the Kimmel Cultural Campus as the location for the reception because it perfectly aligned with our vision of a timeless, classic, bright, and open setting," says Danielle. With Garces Group as the exclusive caterer, the menu was one to remember. From the lamb meatballs and Nashville hot chicken sliders that welcomed guests before dinner was served to the after-party menu at Volver, including "walking taco" tostilocos and cheesesteak egg rolls, Garces Group kept every bite delicious. Bright hues created a spring-like vibe throughout the space—and Elegant Events Florist created a luxe lounge area with a mango color sofa set. Hamilton Garden was filled with tall arrangements with Juliet roses, blush peonies and hydrangeas surrounded by elegant gold votives as 154 guests danced the night away to A Sole Vibe. ■
